Air Travel

The Halifax Stanfield International Airport is Atlantic Canada's centre for domestic, regional and international flight service. Halifax may be reached by direct flights from many major destinations - it is geographically the closest city in Canada from Boston and New York and is also one hour closer to Europe than any other major North American city.

The airport is located 30 minutes from downtown Halifax, and offers a number of transport options to the city including limousine services, car rental companies, taxi services and shuttle buses. Taxi fares are set at $63 for transport from the airport to the downtown core. For further information on traveling to Halifax by air, land or water please click here.

Direct International Flights

Direct flights are available from many international cities including London, Glasgow-Paris, Frankfurt and many others. For a complete list of these flights please click here.
